

Hello Narwhals!

Today is Wednesday, April 19th. It is A Day on your schedule.

The Band lessons for today are Group 13: 3rd period and Group 1: 7th period.

This is the last call for any student who still needs to create the QR code describing their Agent of Change Art work. See Mrs. Grasso during Advisory TODAY in room A111 to get it done.

Knowledge Bowl will be meeting tomorrow, April 20th in the Library at 8AM.

Reading Olympics will meet tomorrow, April 20th. Please be sure to check in with Mrs. Sibley if you can't be there.

Dance club for tomorrow, April 20th is for ALL squads!

Reminder to all students who are participating in Wiffle Ball. We start tomorrow, Thursday, April 20th. We will meet on the back field. You will be notified if we need to cancel due to inclement weather.

Marsh Creek's first annual Bottle Flipping Contest is quickly approaching! Join us on April 24th from 3:30-4:30 to claim your title as Marsh Creek's best bottle flipper! All signups are due back to Mrs. DiGiovanni in Room A323 by the end of the day today, April 19th! The cost is $5.00 and there will be an Activity Bus available for students in need. All proceeds benefit the Cure4Cam Foundation!

The deadline to order yearbooks is May 1st. Please visit the Marsh Creek Homepage for order information.

Attention anyone interested in LMS cheerleading for next school year. Try-outs will be held May 9th-11th. Please scan the QR code found throughout the school and near Mrs. Catrambone's room in order to register and receive try-out paperwork. If you have any questions after you have registered with the QR code, please email the coach estonaker@dasd.org.

April is Autism Awareness Month. Making friends can be difficult for someone who has autism. Different behaviors and interests can mean a child or adult with autism can easily be excluded. Be nice, be understanding. Making a friend can make such a difference. (Source: <http://bit.ly/1NMsp36>)

Spirit Wear for this Friday is "Light It Up Blue" for Autism Awareness!

Have a wonderful Wednesday, narwhals! Don't forget to say the Pledge with your homeroom!
