

MC Announcements

Good Morning Narwhals! Today is Friday, January 11, 2019, and it is A Day on your schedule....AND today is NATIONAL STEP IN A PUDDLE AND SPLASH YOUR FRIENDS DAY!

If you are feeling somewhat mischievous (in a nice kind of way), join in on the celebration that all kids will love and all the young-at-heart adults will love just the same, as we celebrate National Step in a Puddle and Splash Your Friends Day.

Attention ALL Band members today is the start of Honor Band Audition meetings with Mrs. Kirk from DMS and Mrs. McCloskey from LMS. These auditions will continue throughout next week during your scheduled band class! BREAK a LEG!

Band Lessons today are:

Advisory Period: Woodwind Make-up Lesson for Lesson 6

Thursday, Friday, January 11th Gold Violin lesson for today during second period has been cancelled. Gold Violins may instead attend the other Gold Violin option for lessons or may attend along with the Violas next week.

Bass Advisory Makeup Lesson

Hey Narwhals..... What do snowmen eat for lunch? Wait for it.....Icebergers

Last call to sign up for the student faculty basketball game. You know you want to show off your skills and possibly embarrass your teachers. Sign-ups close at 12:30 today, use the link on Schoology to sign up.

Attention singers who might be interested in trying out for 7th grade Vocal Ensemble:

The middle school chorus teachers are coming to audition students who want to be chosen for this select group. Sign-ups are located on the stage ramp, and passes can be obtained from Dr. Weiss. If you are not currently a Chorus student, please contact Dr. Weiss for more details on how best to prepare.

Auditions begin on Monday 1/14, so don't delay!

Friday Spirit Wear: Eagles Green

Thank you and have a wonderful day, Narwhals! Don't forget to say the Pledge!
