  Ask an English teacher or librarian if you have questions about a specific text.

- This book must not be a book that you have previously read.

- Be prepared to complete a writing assignment on this novel when you return to school in the fall.

- Take notes on your reading. You may use the note-taking strategy that works best for you.

  If you read a fiction novel, take notes on the literary elements such as genre, setting, character, plot, conflict, and theme. How does the main character evolve throughout the novel? Do you find the evolution of the character satisfying? Why or Why not?

  If you read a nonfiction book, take notes on key elements such as genre, text structure, main idea or key understandings you had after reading the book. Think about what piqued your interest and made you choose this particular book.

- Bring your notes with you when you return in the fall. This will be used to complete a writing assignment during the first weeks of school.

Have a great summer!
