

Tenth Grade Action Plan

The following information will help you make the most of your sophomore year...

Graduation Requirements...Make sure you are on track with all of graduation requirements.

Grades...Continue to work to the best of your ability. Don't wait to get help if you start to have difficulty in a class. Talk with your teacher to arrange for extra help.

PSAT...The Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT) will be offered in the fall to interested sophomores on Saturday, October 15, 2011 at East and West Campuses. Students will sign up in the Career Center at their home schools. The PSAT is a practice SAT (Scholastic Aptitude Test). The SAT is required for admission to most colleges and universities.

Get involved...Continue looking for more opportunities to get involved in school clubs and activities. You will feel more involved in your school community!

Activity Resume...Continue to log your activities. Keep an updated activity resume in preparation for applying to colleges and universities.

Continue to explore career interests...Check out Education Planner or other career websites (see the "Helpful Websites" link) to start exploring your interests and possible careers. Many websites offer personality profiles and career information.

Review your Internet profile...Make sure your profile on social networking sites and other sites reflects a positive image of yourself.

Continue to exploring colleges/universities...Collecting information from various college/universities at this point will help with the college planning process. Consider information about majors and the selection process.

Explore summer opportunities...Make sure you take advantage of any jobs, internships, and volunteer opportunities that will provide you with valuable experiences. Consult the "Summer Opportunities" link on the Counseling website in the spring.

Need Counseling?...Feel free to contact your counselor with any concerns or questions. You may stop by the Counseling Center or email your counselor to schedule an appointment.

Have a great year!
