During the month of April, the world celebrates and recognizes the amazing people with autism. Together, we support, understand, and accept people with autism to create a brighter and kinder future. Autistic people are intelligent, kind, funny, and awesome, so the world celebrates autism during April and increases its awareness. Autistic people can often be misrepresented and can find themselves grouped into a stigma, but in reality, everyone is different! And it’s okay to be unique!