General Updates:

Piglet (the deaf blind pink puppy), Evie & Zoe (two of Piglet’s pack mates), and Dr. Shapiro (Piglet’s proud owner) were in the nest today at B.W. for two great assemblies! They shared the message of inclusion and perseverance, and our children learned how to become members of Piglet’s Inclusion Pack:

Face challenges with a positive attitude. Accept others for who they are. Include others despite their differences. Always be kind and considerate to all.
Piglet’s packmate, Zoe, a few friends, and a WatchD.O.G.S.:
Dr. Shapiro really loves Piglet:
A GIANT thank you to all who participated in donating items in October for Operation Military Holiday Care Package. BW managed to collect 1,224 pounds worth of items!!!!

With so many donations, they were able to fully pack 29 cartons to send to our troops serving in the Middle East. Our packages were sent to the air force base in Qatar and handed out to the troops who are stationed there.

THANKS BW FAMILIES!!!!

Home and School Updates:

Crayola ColorCycle Update:

We have collected over 1,200 old markers that have been sent to Crayola for recycling! There is a bin in the lobby for marker collection - dry erase markers included!

Spirit Night at Urban Air:

BW spirit night for January will be on Thursday 1/30, at Urban Air from 4-8. Flyer attached but doesn’t need to be presented. Just tell them you’re with BW spirit night!

Publishing Center:

Volunteers needed for the Publishing Center!

The BW PC creates hardback books from stories that the first and second grade students write. This keepsake tradition can't continue without you, our dedicated parents! We need a Chairperson who can work with me this year and take over the position next year, and people that can help during school hours with editing and putting the books together. If you're unable to volunteer time during the day, please consider volunteering as a typists and having stories sent home with your child to type on your own time.

Any questions or volunteers, please contact Kate McCarrie at beacham78@yahoo.com.

Thanks so much!
