1. York College is sponsoring an Understanding College: Academic Possibilities Night on Wednesday, February 26 at 7:00 pm. Beyond hearing about different academic possibilities, students and families will hear from York College students on how to become a productive college student who is ready for the job market. Graduates will also talk about their own career paths, and YCP staff will discuss how college can help to expand a transferable skill set. For more information visit this website: https://admissions.ycp.edu/register/understandingcollege-academic-20
