VILLAGE: These international camps inspire 11-year-olds to imagine a more just and peaceful world. Each Village welcomes delegations from 10 to 12 countries, and each delegation has 2 girls and 2 boys, accompanied by an adult leader. The camp is coordinated by adult staff supported by Junior Counselors (age 16–17).

INTERCHANGE: This is a two-way, monthlong, family exchange program for 12- and 13-year-olds. Interchange takes place in two phases: your child is paired with a child from the parent country and is hosted by that child's family for two weeks. Then the partner country delegation comes to the USA, and your family hosts your child's partner for two weeks.

STEP UP: This camp-based program for 14- or 15-year-olds lasts 23 days and encourages young people to take a leading role in planning and organizing activities. Delegations (which come from 9 countries) each comprise 2 girls and 2 boys, accompanied by an adult leader. The camp is coordinated by adult staff.

FORTNIGHT: This is an engaging two-week domestic summer program for participants age 16–18. In addition to content that explores many new topics, such as what it means to be a U.S. citizen, cultural awareness, and American cultural history and diversity, the camp also focuses on community service.

SEMINAR: This personally challenging, 21-day intensive program for 17- and 18-year-olds is coordinated by the 30 participants themselves. With the supervision and assistance of international adult staff, the participants develop their own agenda and explore global issues based on their backgrounds and interests, through activities and in-depth discussions.

CISV USA handles all applications and assigns placements. Applications are submitted directly to CISV USA, but anyone who is interested in applying for this should contact Brandywine Valley USA first.
