

PENNSYLVANIA CHILD LABOR LAW

The Pennsylvania Child Labor Law, Act 151 of 2012 resulted in changes to Work Permit Application. All students between the ages of 14 and 17 are required by Pennsylvania School Law to secure an Employment certificate, known as "Working Papers," before they may begin to work. This is a wallet-size, transferable work permit, which is valid from the time of issuance until the minor turns 18 years of age. The minor provides a copy to the employer and retains the original. Students who have reached 18, by state law, do not need working papers.

Brief Summary of the changes to PA Child Labor Law:

- The new work permit applies to all minors age 14 through 17 and can be used for more than one employer.
- You do not need a job offer to obtain a work permit.
- A parent/guardian does not need to be present for the student to obtain the work permit. The parent/guardian does not need to sign in the presence of the school officer. Only Part B of the application needs to be completed by the parent/guardian (signature, name & address).
- A physician does not need to sign off on the application.
- An employer does not need to sign off on the application.
